THE 1910

Pirate

DEDICATION

Louise Mayo

Janice Vita

The Senior Class of 1970 dedicate this issue of the "Pirate" to our sponsors, Mrs. Louise Mayo and Miss Janice Vita. Their help, understanding, and efforts, have been an inspiration to us all. They have shown faith, tireless patience, and energy in order to provide us with an adequate education. A lively personality and sense of humor has brought us through difficult times. In this way, we hope we have shown our deep appreciation to them.

Becky Adams is now a nun. She is known by her close friends as "The Adams Sister."

Yvetta Barger, after waiting 30 years for Bobo's promotion, has received a notice from her local draft board saying she cannot be considered for overseas duty.

Brenda Bird is collecting warped Chipmunk records which feature Alvin

Bill Earl Blackmore has reached the HEIGHT of his ambition and has finally monopolized all the ribbon-selling factories of America.

Jan Brown is celebrating her 35th. anniversary of her engagement to Arvil in the army barracks at Fort Charlie.

John Caldwell has shocked the world by becoming the greatest lover since Randolph Valentino.

John Calobreves is still hauling hay and has finally saved enough money to buy a log cabin for his loving wife, Delores.

David Connolly is making regular visits to "Mack's Foo Foo La Poo Beauty Salon."

Alicia Davidson fell into her hope chest. She is hoping someone will find her.

Paula Dowlen is recovering from an attack from an albino prairie chicken.

Donnie Deford runs a chain of filling stations in Siberia.

Brenda Dann, and husband J.C., own their own Fertilizer Company (a subsidiary of "The Cowlot"). They are up to their necks in their work.

Mike Foreman was caught while trying to FORGE HIS name.

Becky Gygyrnuk now teaches the Waxahatchie Indians and has been bestowed with the title of "Squaw of the Year."

Jay Hager recently hijacked a train to Cuba.

James Hahn has become an actor and does commercials for "Soggy Corn Flakes."

Vicki Holland is wandering around Europe in search of her long lost, beloved Lenord Phillips. She has probably forgotten how to get to Midway.

Judy Mathews runs a dairy which specializes in duck milk.

Debra Mayo is a gym leader at Texas A and M.

Timmy Montz, alias "Catfish", is still attending PHS where he is taking a course in bookkeeping. He has been given the title of "Bookworm Montz."

Shirley Morgan's famous beautician, has her own beauty shop, and she specializes in AFRO American Hair-do's.

Let Lam Morgan's face has cracked after 43 years of continuous smiling.

Dr. E.C. Newton has discovered a cure for the common cold. It has some complications—it causes cancer, diphtheria, typhoid fever, tuberculosis, and other dread diseases.

Pam Nowell took a Caribbean cruise and was stranded in Alaska for three weeks while the tug-boat underwent repairs.

Paula Parks is employed by Tom Danaher Volkswagen where she beats dents into VW's.

Lida Schaffner misplaced herself while teasing her hair.

Kenny Shoofstall was badly beaten by a mob of wild girls after he used Ha. Karate. Read those directions a little closer, Kenny.

Randell Spille has just recovered from an ear transplant from which Dumbo was reported the donor.

Barbara Werner is now married to her high school sweetheart, whenever he may be.

The out going Barbara Wyatt splurged on a trip to Thornberry.
